HALL TO BE FILLED

Civic and Semi-Civic Bodies
All Believe Courts Will
Uphold Lot Titles

Interest in the main meeting at Convention hall at 8 o'clock Tuesday night is not confined to residents of the city of Tulsa. Since the announcement that this meeting is to be held for the purpose of devising methods to restore confidence in Tulsa, Tulsa's real estate and other citizens from unscrupulous persons who are actuated by mercenary motives, several long distance telephone calls and personal letters have been received by Mayor T. D. Evans from attorneys, real estate men and other business men in Bartlesville, Sapulpa, Okmulgee and other cities in the northeast part of the state requesting additional information about the meeting and adding that they intend to bring delegations from their cities to the meeting.

As pointed out by Mayor Evans, Judge James P. Briggs, C. B. Rogers, chairman of the citizen's committee appointed last week by the mayor, and others interested in the future of Tulsa as well as in the titles that have been assailed by litigation in local courts, it is not only Tulsa that is or may be affected by these suits. The situation regarding the ownership of the great number of Indian lands in Tulsa is the same, or perhaps only slightly different, than it is all over what was formally Indian territory, and for that reason the business men of other cities on the east side are perturbed over the possible filing of suits affecting titles in their own municipalities.

Believe Titles Are Sound.

The Real Exchange Exchange, the Chamber of Commerce, city officials and other organizations, office holders and business men have expressed complete confidence in titles of real estate in Tulsa. They believe that the title experts in the state of Oklahoma and in the southwest would not have approved titles if they were faulty. But, they contend, the filing of these suits against Crooked Heights, Kirkwood, Ohio Place and Cherokee Heights, regardless of their unicorporation, have already had a harmful effect, not only on the minds of possessors, proprietors and others, but upon the minds of those who do not live in Tulsa, and who consequently do not understand the circumstances under which these suits were instituted.

With titles assailed in Tulsa, the largest city on the east side and a modern metropolis, prospective investors that live in the east who know only that the suits have been brought and who might be credulous enough to believe these suits were well grounded, are likely to withdraw from the financial support from the east, east side of Tulsa home and thus create consternation in business circles and demoralize real estate values and transfers, according to the statements of property owners here, who are confident that the stability of Tulsa titles will be proven and all future litigation prevented through these suits.

Whether the only effective method of silencing the suits is to memorialize congress, or if there is some other plan that will, if communicated, stop the suits results in restoring confidence in titles to be determined at Tuesday night's meeting. Mayor Evans stated Saturday he believes the seating capacity of Convention hall will be taxed by this gathering, which is of tremendous moment to every property owner and citizen.

Haskell Buying Leases.

OKMULGEE, Aug. 19.—The report that C. N. Haskell, former governor of Oklahoma, is negotiating for the purchase of the Turman oil company, owning some of the richest oil properties in the Okmulgee district, was confirmed tonight by George W. Kanode, secretary of the Turman company.

NUXATED IRON

Helps make rich, red blood and revitalize weak nerves

HOW TO MAKE MONEY TODAY

Man Who Lacks Bodily and Mental Vigor, Who
Are Nervous, Irritable and Easily Frustrated, Should Not Fail to Read This It's Not the Smartest Man Who Always Makes the Most Money.

A New York newspaper in a very able editorial says that it isn't the gold case, the fancy chain or the jewels in a watch that make it go, but that it is the MAIN SPRING. With this it is the same as with a watch—without the MAIN SPRING you cannot go ahead. With it nothing can stop you. It is the main spring in the body that keeps you going with the iron determination to go ahead—no matter how many times you fall down. Men of bone and iron have never been the ones of the world and no one can ever be. When you meet such men, look them in the eye and you will see the power of your eyes. You will see the power of your mind and the strength of your body. There are no men more courageous, no men more impulsive in their actions, and no men more persistent in their purposes in their blood and each one must know it.

When you find yourself nervous, weak, irritable and easily upset, do not wait until you get all the pieces and collapse in some ordinary iron like Nuxated Iron. Take a few drops of Nuxated Iron and the iron in your system, heart, blood and life is like the iron in a spring, tensioned and ready for almost immediate action. Nuxated Iron is the iron that is most assimilated by the blood, while some substances are least assimilated, from which people usually take a long time to recover. Nuxated Iron often increases the bodily and mental vigor of weak, run down, people for weeks and months.

Beware of substitutes. Look for the name "Nuxated Iron" on every package and the letter "N" on the label. Your money will be refunded by the manufacturers if you do not obtain satisfactory results. For sale by all druggists—Ady.
